Dear Bill,

Just received your letter announcing that you intend to retire from the Army and are "on the market." With your background and expertise, I should think you can just about name your ticket for a second career.

I will certainly keep my ears attuned to both the public and private sector for any opportunities which may suit your superb qualifications. In the meantime, please feel free to use my name as a reference.

All the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
